THE NEVADA EXHIBIT.

It is Doing Much to Interest the People and Show Our Resources.

San Francisco, May 6.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—As no official action has been taken by the State Board regarding closing the Nevada State building at the Midwinter Fair, I would like it contradicted as not being official. Many old residents of the State are besieging me with letters, etc., as to the truth of the statement, and those who have recently shown a disposition to come to the rescue of the State, claim they will have no object in doing so if the people insist on closing the building. This report is doing a great deal to injure our cause, and until some definite action is taken I think it advisable for the Nevada press to abstain from further action in the matter, anyway until the State Board hold their meeting and notify the management of their intentions.

We all fully realize the situation in Nevada, but if interested parties can be prevailed upon to assist us I think we ought to encourage them. Much interest has been manifested in our exhibit which is very creditable. The promised exhibit from southern Lincoln county will also add greatly, being composed of grapes, figs, almonds, tobacco and cotton. The mining exhibit includes all the new discoveries in the State to date, and as further developments are made we lose no time in procuring data of same and calling them to the attention of visitors. I feel confident that our State is making such a creditable showing it will surely prove of great benefit to us in the future. Your article by "Well Wisher" in the Journal of May 3rd just at hand and I trust it will be freely copied throughout the State. Believe me, very sincerely,
J. A. YERINGTON,
Manager.

A Question of Obscenity.

Washington, May 8.—The question of obscenity in the Breckinridge trial will be passed upon by the postal authorities. The story of the trial as told in book form was recently submitted to Postmaster General Bissell by the publishers to determine whether the transmission of the books through the mails would not be a violation of the postal regulations and in accordance with the policy of the department. Definite action will be taken within a few days.

Washington, May 9.—The story of the Breckinridge case will be allowed to pass through the mails.

Fight in Ashland.

Ashland, Wis., May 9.—The strike of the dockmen culminated last night in an attempt to lynch Mayor Hubbell. The Mayor had made himself hateful to the strikers by swearing in twenty-one extra policemen to protect Contractor King, who was trimming ore at less than dockers' prices. At 6 o'clock a mob marched to the Mayor's residence. They ransacked the house, but did not find the Mayor, who fled at the approach of the crowd. Returning to the business part of the city the rioters met a squad of policeman, and after a lively fight were dispersed.

A Close Vote.

London, May 9.—T. P. O'Connor in the Sun today expresses the belief that the Government is near the end of its tether. He predicts that on the second reading of the budget next Thursday it will have not more than a narrow majority and asserts with such a narrow majority it will be impossible for the Government to carry through the rest of its programme. Other papers comment on the situation in similar strain.

The Cabinet is now considering the situation regarding the budget.

A San Francisco dispatch says: Secret Service Agent Harris has ascertained that Davis Burke, the "coin-sweater," sold to the Selby Smelting works, during eight months prior to his arrest, gold bullion extracted from $20 pieces to the amount of $1,100.

They Want Names.

The Russell Art Publishing Co., of 928 Arch Street, Philadelphia, desire the names and address of a few people in every town who are interested in works of art, and to secure them they offer to send free, "Cupid Guides the Boat," a superbly executed water color picture, size 10 x 13 inches, suitable for framing, and sixteen other pictures about the same size, in colors, to any one sending them at once the names and addresses of ten persons (admirers of fine pictures) together with six two-cent stamps to cover expense of mailing, etc. The regular price of these pictures is $1.00, but they can all be secured free by any person forwarding the names and stamps promptly. The editor of this paper has already received copies of above pictures and considers them really "Gems of Art."

E. J. Baldwin Sued.

Los Angeles, May 9.—"Lucky" Baldwin was today sued in the Superior Court by Miss Lillian A. Ashley of Boston for $75,000 for seduction.

Miss Ashley alleges in her complaint that from March 3, 1893, to Dec 7, 1893, she had been living in Los Angeles with Baldwin and that she became a mother to his child. The plaintiff has a long array of distinguished attorneys to prosecute her case.

A Long Wheeling Trip.

New York, May 9.—Crest H. H. Hill of Geneva, N. Y., has left this city on a wheeling trip around the world. The novelty of his undertaking lies in the fact that he rides, as far as Chicago on what he terms a unicycle, which is nothing more or less than the front wheel of an ordinary machine, having no saddle. Hill is but 17 years old. Eugene Pelti accompanies him as manager, riding on a safety. The trip will take two years.

The Weiland Saloon.

W. Whitney has assumed control of the Weiland saloon, which he proposes to run strictly up to the times. He will dispense the best liquors and cigars and fine old Government whiskey, which slides down your throat like oil, tickling your palate meanwhile. Call and see "Handsome Whit." f11

UNITED STATES COURT HOUSE and Postoffice Building, Carson City, Nevada, May 1, 1894. Sealed proposals will be received until 12 o'clock noon, Tuesday, May 23, 1894, for furnishing fuel, lights, water, ice, miscellaneous supplies, washing towels, hauling ashes, and sprinkling streets for this building during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, or such portion of the year as may be deemed advisable. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved by the Treasury Department. T. J. EDWARDS, Custodian. m6

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an aching pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle. n6f
